Dear Andrew,

I thought you might be interested in seeing the follow-up activity my class did after our visit to BMFI. The students LOVED the trip and showed enthusiasm in their ideas, discussions, and writing. The students first wrote a sequel to My Life with a Wave in their journals. Then I asked them to make a brief storyboard and summary of the sequel. The journal entries were much more detailed, but I thought some of my students had some unique ideas. Even my most reluctant writers had something to write about. We are anxious to continue our lessons.

Thank you for providing such a rich experience for literacy for my students.

Sincerely,

Dear Bmfi,

Thank you for taking time out of your day to help us with the movie and activities.

We all enjoyed the movie and the activities and Pop Corn.

We've already started working in the note books.

We really hope that we get to come back another time with are class of over the weekend. I think that ~~It~~ was one of my best feild trips.

Dear BMFI,

Thank you for letting us come to watch a movie. I also liked that you let us have popcorn. The movie was very fun. I've already started to write in the journal you gave me. I might come back on a Saturday.

Sincerely,
Aram
